EU-China Jean Monnet Network

Workshop on EU-China Relationship in the Field of Taxation: BEPS and Digital Economy

26 March 2019
Brussels

9.00  Registration of participants

9.30  Welcome

Jerónimo Maillo, CEU San Pablo University
Marta Villar Ezcurra, CEU San Pablo University

9.45  Setting the scene: the relevance of taxation of EU-China relationship

Jerónimo Maillo, CEU San Pablo University
Graham Watson, European Economic and Social Committee
Jean-Christophe Defraigne, Université Saint-Louis-Bruxelles and UCLouvain

10.45  Coffee Break

11.15  International taxation between BEPS and the Belt Road Initiative

Irma Mosquera, University of Leiden
Marta Villar Ezcurra, CEU San Pablo University
Jie Wang, Erasmus Universiteit Rotterdam

12.45  Lunch
14.00  Indirect taxation and digital economy – Key issues

European perspective
Edoardo Traversa, UCLouvain - Faculty of Law Crides and Institute of European Studies

Chinese perspective
Yige Zu, University of Exeter

15.00  Coffee Break

15.15  Digital taxation and retail digital platforms in EU-China trade

Marie Lamensch, Institute of European Studies VUB and UCLouvain
Elena Masseglia Miszczyszyn, Université catholique de Louvain

16.00  Conclusion

Edoardo Traversa, UCLouvain - Faculty of Law Crides and Institute of European Studies

---

Free entrance - Inscriptions en ligne via ce lien - online registration before 18 March
Your email address is included in our databases. The latter are used to announce our activities and to organize our conferences and workshops. In compliance with the General Regulation on personal data protection, you have the right to access these data and, if necessary, to ask for the rectification or the deletion.

Venue: European Economic and Social Committee (EESC), Room TRE 7701
Trèves Building, 7th floor, 74 rue de Trèves, 1040 Brussels – Belgium

Contact: catherine.vanderlinden@uclouvain.be