To celebrate the European Year for Active Ageing and Solidarity between Generations, the European Parliament’s LUX Prize and the Brussels Film Festival organise the screening of “The Snows of Kilimandjaro”.

Seniors, students, youth associations and job seekers are invited to discover a film that shows how generations are confronted with society’s core issues: economic crisis and loss of job, family and cultural relations and how solidarity is a fundamental value that needs to be defended and promoted.

14.30 - 16.30 - Screening of “The Snows of Kilimandjaro”* - OV ST NL
16.40 - 17.30 - Exchange of views on solidarity between generations in the presence of Isabelle Durant, Vice-president of the European Parliament
17.30 - 18.30 - Informal get-together

*free entrance for seniors, students and job seekers upon registration at laurine@brff.be
